The Hope That Jesus Brings

It was nearly 2,000 years ago, that Jesus rose from the dead; that women went and found an empty tomb; that after hearing the report of the women, several disciples ran to the tomb and found it empty ... for Jesus Christ rose from the grave. (read Mark 16:1-8)

Most of the great or powerful leaders in the world have tombs you can visit where their remains are interred; and none of them have risen from the dead. But not Jesus; His tomb is empty. There is no body there; there are no ashes there; there are no remains there ... for Jesus rose from the dead!

The Devil did his best to keep Jesus down; the grave did all it could to hold its captive. But, after 3-days, the Heavenly Father said, “Enough is enough.” An angel was dispatched to the earth; an earthquake occurred; and the stone was rolled away from the tomb – Not to let Jesus out, but to let the women and disciples in ... so they could see Jesus was gone.

Now, what is the result of this resurrection? What difference does it make to us?

Because of the resurrection of Jesus Christ, “He has given us a new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.” (read 1 Peter 1:3-9)

What is this living hope? What is the hope we now have, that only the resurrection of Jesus Christ can give us?

We now have a hope, knowledge, that ...

1. Death is not the end.
For much of recorded history, mankind has often been unsure of whether there is really life after death. Even today, many claim that this life is all there is. The conclusion of the matter is that we become worm food. But, because Jesus rose, we now have a hope in the certainty that one day we (too) will rise again; that we (too) will live again. The Bible (Colossians 1:18; Revelation 1:5) calls Jesus “the Firstborn from the dead” ... meaning there will be others. Because of Jesus’ resurrection we have a certain hope that even if we die, one day we will live again.

2. Evil does not win.
Sometimes it seems that the bad guy often wins; that the one who cheats, the one who lies, the one who steps on others at work to get ahead, is the one who prospers. It seems that there is no hope for the good guy ... the one who lives righteously ... to ever get ahead. I can well imagine the followers of Jesus felling that way. For 3-days they wondered how the Roman Empire could get away with what it had done to Jesus. But on the first day of the week ... as goes the hymn – “Up from the grave He arose, with a mighty triumph o’er His foes; He arose a victor from the dark domain, and He lives forever on His saints to reign. He arose! He arose! Hallelujah! Christ arose!”

In Mark 16:7, why in the world did the angel specifically mention Peter? ... the Peter who walked with Jesus for 3-years; knew Jesus intimately; watched as Jesus performed miracles. The Peter who on the night of the Lord’s Supper told Jesus, “Even if the rest of them leave you, I never will ...” (Matthew 26:35) ... yet later that same evening denies Jesus 3 times. (read Matthew 26:69-75) Imagine the scene: The women come from the tomb, pound on the door of the upper room where the disciples were hiding until finally one of them opens the door. The women burst into the room and breathlessly tell all those assembled there what the angel said.

As I look back at the last couple of months and reflect on the challenges that the Foundation went through with the move to the Fort Snelling Officer's Club and getting past the worst of our winter weather — it makes me proud to be a member of this great family. Our worship numbers remained high, even with the adversity of bad weather, road conditions, and not being able to attend services in the Chapel.

Each Sunday just re-enforced what I already knew and understood — We are a Chapel family that is dedicated to our belief in God and great fellowship. I enjoyed seeing everyone each Sunday who braved the weather conditions to make it to services.

As we look to the next couple of months, we will once again be reminded of the sacrifice that Jesus made for us. As we look to this day, we should all continue to acknowledge the reasons why Jesus sacrificed His life for us. We should continue to pray for His forgiveness and to repent of our sins. It is also a time to reach out to as many as we can to educate those on the real reason why we recognize Easter ... and that it isn't all about the Easter Bunny.

I look forward to the upcoming good weather and the spring flowers and blooms appearing.

May God bless all.

had said; and as they tell their story, they glance around the room and see Peter in the corner. He’s no longer acting so bold; he’s no longer acting like a leader; he’s sitting alone in the corner ... head hung low. Seeing him there, the women say, "Oh, and Peter, the angel specifically mentioned you. He mentioned you by name, saying, "Tell the disciples and Peter." (Mark 16:7) God wanted Peter to know that he’s still a child of God; that all is forgiven. (read 1 John 1:9)

4. New life is an option.
Many who have been trapped in sin, who have battled the same sin time and time again, and have been beaten over and over again, sometimes reach the point where they believe they can never escape. They believe they are trapped in that sin, in that addiction, forever. But Jesus’ resurrection proves that you can have a new life. As we read in Romans 6:4 – "Therefore we were buried with Him by baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we too may walk in a new way of life." Paul said to the Christians in Corinth, "You used to be like that, but you’ve been saved. You’re washed, you’re sanctified, you’re justified. You’re not like that anymore." (1 Corinthians 6:11) Later he said, "If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature. Old things have passed away. Behold, all things are become new." (2 Corinthians 5:17) You can live a new life!

5. A better tomorrow is promised.
Here is a certainty – We will die. But for the Christian, we have a promise not only of living again, but also of a better tomorrow; we will gain a better inheritance – One that is imperishable, uncorrupted, and unfading, kept in heaven for us ... for those who know Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior. Jesus said, "I am going to prepare a place for you." (read John 14:1-3) What a place that will be – a place where there are no more tears and no more pain.

Because of the resurrection of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, we know – Death is not the end; Evil does not win; God forgives; New life is an option; and we know a better tomorrow is coming. This is the hope that Easter brings!

Intergenerational Christian Ed Class

Every Sunday morning, members of our Chapel family gather at 10:00 a.m., in the Fellowship Hall of the Chapel, for discussions and deliberations about being Christian in our 21st Century America. Our discussions are led by Chaplain Ken Beale and Chaplain Mike Wallman. Every week, electronic announcements are sent out encouraging members to attend this brief but meaningful study by our own great communicator — Ted Nemzek. The class includes all ages and encourages folks from all walks to engage in discussion and grow together in matters that pertain to the Bible and the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Last year, we worked through a book entitled, Politics According to the Bible, by Dr. Wayne Grudem. The discussion brought us all to a greater awareness of the necessity for good Christian citizenship on the part of God’s people. Beginning in September of 2012, we began to work together as a class to produce a statement of the Christian faith that describes who we are as a Chapel family and what we believe.

Historically, the Chapel services provided by the Fort Snelling Memorial Chapel Foundation have been a haven for seekers who embrace the historic faith of the Christian Church. In our gatherings we seek to honor Christ and His Word and bring glory to God through our loving and active fellowship. Many things we truly believe about the faith of Christ are lived and, therefore, seldom need to be spoken of. In our worship we share what we believe, genuinely and meaningfully, as we recite the Apostles’ Creed together. The messages we listen to each week are biblically-based and encourage a vibrant faith. Therefore, some may ask of what need do we have for a statement of faith?

The best way to answer this question is to share a typical class as we work through the doctrines of the Church to arrive at a statement of our own. First, we examine the biblical basis for Church doctrines like “who is God” and the “inspiration and authority of the Bible.” After we have examined the biblical material, we take a look at sample statements that have come down to us like the Westminster

Confession, and some of the great statements of notably effective Christian groups of our day. We then pause from our study to collaborate on a statement that is unique to our congregation while at the same time effectively linking us to the historic faith of Christianity. The whole process is to enable us to share the true faith, in words of our choosing, to visitors, to friends, and family. As the Apostle Peter has said, “...but sanctify Christ in your hearts, always being ready to make a defense to everyone who asks you to give an account for the hope that is in you, yet with gentleness and reverence.” (1 Peter 3:15)

Join us, and together we can prepare ourselves to do just as Peter has described.

— Chaplain Mike Wallman

In the Event of Inclement Weather

If on a Sunday morning it is significantly snowing ... or tremendously cold ... or the winds are resulting in drifting conditions, please call our Foundation Office at 651/286-7296 for an announcement of worship cancellation. In this way we will attempt to inform you of Chapel closings.
Holy Week at the Chapel

Place an Easter Plant in the Chancel

A special tradition at the Chapel is to adorn the altar area with beautiful plants on Easter Sunday. This tradition is made even more precious by the dedications which are made for each of the plants. It’s a beautiful way to honor or remember your loved ones at this sacred and holy time of year.

You can select lilies and tulips (purple, yellow and orange) The cost is $10.00 each.

Plants making up the Easter Garden will be noted in the bulletin in memory of ... in honor of ... or to the glory of God. Orders must be received by Sun, 17 Mar. Donors may take their plant after the worship service. The plants that remain will be delivered to the MN Veterans Home for their enjoyment.

Karen Ayers will be taking orders beginning 3 March in the Fellowship Hall.

Easter Brunch

Plan to attend our Easter Brunch (9:30 -10:30 a.m.) in the Fellowship Hall prior to the Easter Sunday worship service on 31 Mar (11:00 a.m.). Please sign up between 3-24 Mar in Fellowship Hall for this freewill donation brunch.

Palm Sunday — Distribution of Palms

24 Mar is Palm/Passion Sunday. At 11:00 a.m. each worshiper will receive palms to commemorate Christ’s triumphant entry into Jerusalem.

Chaplain Ken will present a timely sermon entitled, “The People on the Road to the Cross” ... based on Matthew 21:1-11. The special music will be the Land O’Lakes Boys Choir.

Good Friday — Holy Communion

On Fri 29 Mar, we will have our Good Friday worship service at 2:00 p.m. Chaplain Mike will bring a message entitled, “Gethsemane” ... based on Luke 22:39-46. The special music will be soloist Bonnie Hammel. At this worship service the invitation to commune at the Lord’s Table will be extended ... which is open to all who believe in the Lord Jesus for their salvation.

Easter Service

On Sun 31 Mar, our worship service will be held at 11 a.m.

The special music will be the Tetzlaff Brass Quintet. Chaplain Ken will bring a message entitled, “Peter: Come, Confide & Continue” ... based on John 21:15-22.
In the Gospel According to St. John it says, "Greater love has no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends."

Approximately 16,350,000 Americans served in World War II; of these, less than 1,000,000 are expected to be alive in 2014. Will Rogers once said, "We can't all be heroes. Some of us have to stand on the curb and clap as they go by."

In our final Benevolence Committee meeting, one of the grants went to an organization many of the members of the Fort Snelling Memorial Chapel Foundation have been a part of. Twin Cities Honor Flight is part of a National organization that gives WWII veterans a special day trip to Washington, D.C. to visit several of the memorials ... to include the new WWII memorial. The day starts by gathering at 4:30 a.m. in Terminal 2; departing at 6:30 a.m.; and ends around 10:40 p.m. back at the same terminal. The WWII veterans are met at Reagan National Airport in Washington, D.C. by members of our military, Boy Scouts, and many other patriots ... with lots of clapping and welcomes. Buses are waiting to take the group to several sites. Wheel chairs are available at all times. The first group photo is taken at the Iwo Jima Memorial with the second at the WWII Memorial. The entire trip is recorded and presented to the veterans and guardians at the reunion party on a DVD.

I am writing about this because this is an opportunity for many of you to spend a day with 100 of the "Greatest Generation." The trip for the guardians is $500.00 which is tax-deductible. Your $500 covers everything for the day and allows the WWII veteran to go free of charge. Many members of the Chapel have gone both as veterans and guardians (some of us several times as guardians.)

If you would like a once in a life time trip, I would suggest you consider this sooner rather than later. There are two trips each year ... until there are no more WWII veterans healthy enough to go. Please visit the web site [www.honorflight.org] and fill out the guardian application. E-mail it to Jerry Kyser at crazyjerry45@hotmail.com.

If you know a WWII veteran that has not gone on the trip, please help them fill out the veteran application and send it to Jerry. You will have a day that you and the veteran will never forget. You can also call Jerry at (651) 338-2717 with any questions.

God bless the 1% that protect the remaining 99%.

From second through eighth grade, he had "the good fortune to attend a Catholic grade school." He tells me that he was "pretty wild" and really gives credit to the saintly nuns who put up with him. After eighth grade, Richard went to a public high school, joining football in an attempt to be popular with the girls. He also managed the Midtown Theater on Como Avenue, selling tickets, popcorn and candy. He must have been hearing a drum beat as he was really anxious to get away and out on his own. Literally, on the day that he graduated from high school, he took the Blackhawk to Chicago with $19 in his pocket. And so his travels began.

Colors, doing marching maneuvers, and inspiring the crowd to get up and off their feet in the 13-15 minute shows that they performed. It was an incredibly physically demanding activity, but provided much satisfaction to Richard. Today, drum corps has become much more of a theatrical show, and quite regrettably no longer presents our National Colors. Richard laments this change. During this time in Chicago, Richard worked parking cars in the Chicago Loop, Dearborn and Congress. After that, he worked on the thirteenth floor of Carson Pierie Scott, unpacking incoming merchandise.

After a few years, he came back and attended the University of Minnesota before being drafted in 1966. For three months he spent time in Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri, and did his advanced training at Fort Ord, California. While in California, he visited a friend who was an Army officer and knew that he also wanted to become one. He requested Fort Benning, Georgia, expecting that they would send him to Fort Sill, Oklahoma instead. After the six month program at Fort Sill, he graduated and was commissioned as a second lieutenant on July 4, 1967. The next two years were at the height of the Vietnam War, but in those two years, Richard never had to leave the country. He spent them at Fort Lewis, Washington, and finished active duty in 1969. He stayed in the Reserves for two years after.

While in the Reserves he got married and moved to Arizona. A short two years later and they were on to San Diego. He worked at Scripts Clinic, akin to a Mayo Clinic on the west coast, transcribing medical reports. In 1994, Richard moved on again, this time to Rhode Island for a bit. It was after this, that he moved to Las Vegas, where he got involved in the restaurant business for three years. Ten families in Chicago had started selling Italian beef sandwiches in Italian communities, and Richard visited one of the most famous ones while in Chicago- Marge's on Cicero and Grand Avenue. The mother of his business partner knew the owner of Marge's, and so they were able to acquire one of the best recipes around.

Richard and his business partner owned three locations in Las Vegas. Richard returned to Minnesota following the death of his partner's mother, a life-long family friend. He returned to Minnesota to be close to his mother. He was able to spend time with her before she passed away only six short months later.
Since 1998, Richard has lived in Minnesota and the beat goes on. His younger sister lives in the area; so he sees her and his four nieces and one nephew often.

Richard got involved in the Fort Snelling Squadron of the Civil Air Patrol back in 2003. Richard found the Chapel in 2007, after years of being a poorly-practicing Catholic. He was introduced via the wreath program at the Fort Snelling Cemetery. He calls it a “serendipitous discovery” and counts it as an incredible privilege to know and hear the stories of such patriotic people. Drawing on his vast experiences, Richard is the Chapel family’s maintenance department, having recently been in charge of organizing the Chapel’s responsibilities for the current renovation. He volunteers at Cristo Rey Jesuit High School as a math tutor and helps with the Wreaths Across America program. Additionally, Richard is actively involved with the Gideon’s International, thanks to Bob Peterson. He is pleased to be a part of a movement to spread the word of Christ and acknowledges that handing out Bibles was sometimes easier than talking about it. Richard discovered that he had an even deeper connection with Bob Peterson when he learned that Bob knew his Aunt Geniece when they both worked at the Dodge Nature Preserve in West Saint Paul. Bob establishing and teaching the farming program and Geniece managing the household and a special caretaker for Mrs. Dodge’s elderly nanny. A small world it is.

Richard Geis is a man much more interested in turning the attention on others. He has been all over the United States, and gotten involved in many different trades. Along with having no regrets and striving to love everyone, Richard tells me that the most important thing is to learn how to show joy so that others can see it. I myself struggle with that, often forgetting that others cannot read my mind and might not understand that I’ve just forgotten to smile. This I will continue to work on.

Richard is a strong man, a steady beat that carries through and through. Richard’s strength, compassion and involvement serve to surely keep the heartbeat of Fort Snelling strong and constant.

The U in JesUs

Before U were thought of or time had begun,
God stuck U in the name of His Son ...
And each time U pray, you'll see it's true,
You can't spell out JesUs and not include U.
You’re a pretty big part of His wonderful name,
For U, He was born; that’s why He came.
And His great love for U is the reason He died.
It even takes U to spell crucified.
Isn't it thrilling and splendidly grand
He rose from the dead, with U in His plan?
The stones split away, the gold trUmpet blew,
And this word resUurrection is spelled with a U.
When JesUs left earth at His Upward ascension,
He felt there was one thing He just had to mention.
"Go into the world and tell them it's true
That I love them all - Just like I love U."
So many great people are spelled with a U,
Don't they have a right to know JesUs too?
It all depends now on what U will do;
He'd like them to know,
But it all starts with U.
